Drawing the Clothed Figure with Alice Kale

When: Sunday April 3, 1-4 pm class / 4-5 pm optional chat

In this workshop students will practice drawing the clothed model in a simplified manner intended to express the underlying human form. Initial gesture drawings will help students to understand and quickly capture a pose. We will then progress into a fully developed drawing of the clothed figure. All skill levels are welcome.

The drawing session will run three hours from 1-4pm. We will be having refreshments and a group discussion on what we learned during the session for those that would like to stay on from 4-5pm.

Please bring newsprint (18"x24"), a fat Sharpie pen and a charcoal pencil. If you wish you may bring additional drawing materials of your choice and better quality drawing paper as well. A portable easel is optional.

Alice Kale is a well-known local painter and popular teacher. In addition to numerous awards, her work has been featured in Watercolor Magic and Artist's Sketchbook magazines and in the Washington Post.

Fees are $15 for DRA members, $18 for non-members. For more information contact Katherine Rand at 703-836-1468 or DRA.LifeDrawing@gmail.com. Space is limited and registration by Wednesday, March 30th is required. You can register online at www.thedelrayartisans.org.
